If you need to escape from the stress and strain of daily life, then escape to Bermuda. It is the most relaxing of all the foreign islands off the Atlantic coastline. Bermuda is a hassle-free environment where you can concentrate on your tan, explore the island, or have a lively conversation with the locals. As Mark Twain often said, "Sometimes a dose of Bermuda is just what the doctor ordered." This is the place to kick back and relax. If you are into sunning and swimming, it does not get much better than Bermuda with its pink sands and turquoise seas.

Hamilton, Bermuda - Hamilton is the hub of Bermuda, serving as both its capital and commercial center. Locals refer to it simply as 'town' - 'going to town' means, without a doubt, going to Hamilton. Fort Hamilton is a substantial hilltop fort with a bird's-eye view of Hamilton Harbor. It is one of a series of fortifications erected in the mid-19th century during a period of rising tensions between Britain and the USA. The ramparts are mounted with 10-inch rifled muzzleloader guns, capable of firing 400-pound cannonballs through iron-hulled vessels. These devastating weapons were, fortunately, never required. The city's pulse is located in Front Street, a harborfront road lined with turn-of-the-century Victorian buildings in bright pastel lemon, lime, apricot, and sky blue. Many buildings have overhanging verandahs, where you can linger over lunch and watch the boats ferry across the harbor.

King's Wharf, Bermuda - After the American War of Independence, the British were no longer able to use ports in their former American colonies, so they chose this site on hilly Ireland Island at the western tip of Bermuda as their 'Gibraltar of the West.' It served as a dockyard facility and re-supply depot for ships heading between Nova Scotia and the British West Indies. The fort was built between 1814 and 1863 by nearly 10,000 convicts who were quartered in unspeakable conditions on prison ships stationed in the deepwater cove. The fort is built of limestone blocks in Georgian style and was first used by the British navy as a base to launch their raid on Washington, DC, in 1814. It later served as a North Atlantic base during both World Wars but was abandoned as a costly outpost in 1951. Since then, the buildings have been renovated and given a second life. The dockyard now includes the fascinating Bermuda Maritime Museum, located in the fort's former keep, an atmospheric pub, a movie theatre, a craft market, and the Bermuda Snorkel Park.

St. George's, Bermuda = This unspoiled town overlooking St. George's Harbor was Bermuda's first capital, and remains its most fascinating sightseeing area. The town is steeped in period charm as befits a place that was Britain's second settlement in the New World. Many of its original twisting alleyways and colonial-era buildings remain intact, and several centuries-old structures have been preserved and set aside as museums. A handful of waterfront restaurants provide a perfect setting for atmospheric dining. Nearby Tobacco Bay is a good swimming and snorkeling beach when you are through with all the history.

*Group is ensured a pick-up in their home town regardless of the number of passengers attending the program.

** There is a minimum requirement of 32 paying customers from Best of Times Travel to ensure the services of a Best of Times Professional Tour Director.

THE FREE SPIRIT OF FREESTYLE CRUISING

NORWEGIAN CRUISE LINE
FREESTYLE CRUISING®

Different from anything else on water.

With Freestyle Cruising, you'll discover something you won't find on other cruise lines - freedom. An NCL Freestyle Vacation cruise offers diverse and exciting restaurants, a more relaxed dress code and more things to see and do. And that's just the beginning. We've designed the entire cruise experience around giving you the option to choose.

Dining

The choice is yours. From elegant French bistros and Italian trattorias to sushi and tapas bars and more, there's a different dining option for almost every night of your cruise. And there are no fixed seatings. You're free to dine where, when and with whom you choose. Just as it should be on your vacation.

Attire

Wear what you want. Dress according to your mood. It is your vacation. "Resort casual" attire is as dressy as you'll ever have to get for dinner. But if it's elegance you're dreaming of, we invite you to indulge.
