streets open during snowstorms, and we strive to clear all public roads down to bare pavement and clear priority sidewalk routes within 24 hours after a winter storm ends.”

The updated policy contains 22 sections, including objectives, procedures, level of service, workforce assigned for winter storm operations, materials used for ice control, plow route priorities, and post-storm operations. Read the full document here: www.dover.nh.gov/government/city-operations/community-services/highway/winter-operations. It replaces a policy previously approved by the City Council in December of 1999.

The policy’s online appendix has maps for plow routes of all of the City of Dover’s public roads. It also has maps of priority plow routes for the City’s sidewalks broken into three sections: Downtown, Northside and Southside. Also included a current list of snow removal equipment maintained by the Community Services Department.

Emergency Extreme Weather Warming Center begins regular operations Sunday

After opening two days earlier this week due to the winter storm, the Strafford County Emergency Extreme Weather Warming Center at 30 Willand Drive in Somersworth will open nightly for regular operations on Sunday, Dec. 20.

The warming center will open each night at 5 p.m. and close at 9 a.m., starting on Sunday, Dec. 20, through Thursday, Dec. 31. Staffing for operations is provided by the Strafford County Integrated Delivery Network (IDN), Region 6 (Strafford County/Seacoast). Beginning Friday, Jan. 1, 2021, the Strafford County Emergency Extreme Weather Warming Center will open for life-threatening weather conditions. IDN Director Tory Jennison and the Tri-City Emergency Management Team will decide when to activate the warming center, based on weather conditions.

The City of Dover purchased the Willand Drive property through a grant it received late last month from the New Hampshire Housing Finance Authority. One of the grant's requirements is that it be up and running before the end of December. The grant covers the property's purchase and the cost of equipment needed for operation, including a van that will be used to transport clients back to and from the Emergency Extreme Weather Warming Center and an emergency power back-up generator. The grant also covers staffing costs through the end of the year. Strafford County has a separate grant that will cover staffing costs during life-threatening weather conditions for up to 60 days beginning on Jan. 1, 2021.

Earlier this week, the Somersworth City Council and the Somersworth Planning Department met separately, and each board gave its unanimous support for warming center operations this winter season.

SEED announces fall grant winners

Awards $30,000 in education funding

Seacoast Educational Endowment for Dover ("SEED"), a nonprofit organization dedicated to lifting academic excellence in Dover, New Hampshire public schools, recently approved approximately $30,000 in grant awards to teachers and administrators across the Dover school district.

At Horne Street School, SEED awarded $1,229 for a group of twelve educators to attend Culturally Responsive Literature Instruction, a professional development course offered by Harvard Graduate School. The curriculum is designed to provide K-12 teachers, principals, and literacy coaches with resources and background knowledge to critically analyze and select multicultural literature for classroom libraries and instruction.

A May 2020 survey commissioned by the National 4-H Council found that 70 percent of teenagers are struggling with their mental health due to the Covid-19 pandemic. To meet the needs of the school-community, Dover High School ("DHS") Librarian Kristen Whitworth submitted an application for funding to connect DHS students with teen-focused online resources. She was awarded $2,636 to purchase an assortment of eBooks from Gale's Cameron's Collection to give DHS students materials written for them to address struggles teens face such as homelessness, family dynamics, body image, and substance abuse. Additionally, the grant includes funding for access to Rosen Teen Health and Wellness database, a one-stop self-help resource and fully interactive online community center for teen health and wellness.

DHS Math Teacher Tim Elliot was awarded $400 to purchase tools to conduct a month-long class on probability and statistics as an entry point for a class discussion about the difference between random and pseudo-random and how pseudo-random number generators work. Also at the high school, Science Teacher Amy Poirier, was awarded $6,518 to buy two digital platforms to enable virtual science labs for DHS students. Pivot Interactives allow students to experience labs teachers are accustomed to offering in-person and can be used by all core science courses including Integrated Earth Science, Biology, Chemistry and Physics. Labster is most widely used at the college level and provides simulations for higher-level courses like Dual Enrollment Honors Anatomy & Physiology, Advanced Placement Chemistry, and Advanced Placement Biology.

Thanks to a SEED grant, Music Teacher Eric Turner will spend $4,000 to purchase ProTools Software to enable each student access to recording technologies in a virtual environment. Students from novice to advanced levels can express their creativity while learning universal programming skills, increasing their musicianship through composition and self-evaluation, and promoting cross-curricular collaboration.

At Dover Middle School ("DMS"), the seventh-grade Language Arts educators will use $1,300 of SEED funding to purchase paperback books for each student to read together across the entire grade as a whole-class assignment. The book chosen, New York Times bestselling mystery adventure Flush by Carl Hiaasen, will build cross-curricular connections to increase student engagement in multiple subjects.

SEED will pay for DMS Math Teacher Patty Mulqueen to subscribe to Marvel, a paper prototyping app to allow eighth-grade students to demonstrate their understanding of mathematical concepts. Marvel POP functionality around design, prototyping and user testing will encourage creative thinking and inspire the next generation of entrepreneurs.

The largest grant award went to Dover Middle School's Amie Hinkley and Deb Jacobs. SEED will provide $10,000 to purchase thirty student-devices equipped with Google Expeditions. This immersive education app allows students to take a virtual field trip to any place in the world, at any time in history. Purchased through Best Buy Education, the funding includes allowances for a charging cart, Geek Squad White Glove service, Geek Squad 24/7 support, and nine months of professional development.

Seacoast Charter School received $500 to purchase a one-year license for online virtual manipulatives to use in math classes throughout the school to demonstrate key math concepts and students to think and reason in more meaningful ways.

Social-emotional learning curriculum is difficult to teach in a remote environment. To combat this, the DMS Oasis Program received $2,100 in funding to purchase sensory tools such as: active tilt stools, wiggle seats, balance ball chair, stress relief fidget sensory tools, hedgehog rollers, and noise cancelling headphones. Evidence shows students who use sensory tools become more engaged and attentive to instruction. Sensory tools help promote a sense of calm, reduce stress and anxiety, boost concentration, and improve performance.

Entirely funded by community giving, SEED promotes the teaching and learning of 21st century skills by providing Dover educators access to tools, training, and curriculum not otherwise available through traditional school budgets. SEED recently launched its annual appeal for tax deductible donations to fund future learning initiatives. To learn more about SEED or donate, please visit www.DoverSEED.org

About SEED

Formed in 2011, SEED is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization working to promote academic excellence, champion technology and reward educator innovation in Dover's public schools. SEED support is not intended to replace appropriate municipal funding. SEED raises private philanthropic dollars and provides grant funds, on a competitive basis, to educators who submit formal applications. SEED's overarching goals are to create a legacy for educational excellence in Dover Public Schools and to advocate the value of education in the community. Last day to help high school students with 'Spirit of Giving Gift Card Tree'

The Dover High School's Student Council and National Honor Society seek the public's assistance to provide help to student families in need through the Spirit of Giving Gift Card Tree this holiday season.

In years past, there is a Giving Tree at DHS during the holiday season that has ornaments that have a wish-list item for those in financial need. It allowed people with financial means to pick an ornament and provide an essential gift that a person might not otherwise receive.

But because of the ongoing COVID-19 coronavirus pandemic, DHS cannot accept physical cash or gifts. Instead, the Student Council and the National Honor Society ask the community to donate gift cards this year to help families in need. Suggestions for gift cards include department stores and grocery stores.

To donate a card, drop it off at the DHS main office or mail it to DHS, ATTN: Donna Berchulski, 25 Alumni Drive, Dover, NH 03820. The DHS will accept gift cards until today, Friday, Dec. 18. This deadline allows Burchulski, a DHS social worker, to get the gift cards to families in need in time for the holidays.

Stay home for safer holidays

With COVID-19 cases on the rise, the safest way to celebrate holidays is to stay home and celebrate with the people who live with you. Although the pandemic has been stressful and isolating, getting together with family and friends who do not live with you can increase the chances of getting or spreading COVID-19 or the flu. This holiday season, consider how your plans can be modified to help slow the spread of COVID-19 and keep your friends, families, and communities healthy.

Statewide mask mandate in effect

On Nov. 19, Gov. Chris Sununu issued an emergency order instituting a statewide mask mandate.

The mask mandate will remain in effect through Jan. 15, 2021.

Per the order, everyone over the age of 5 in New Hampshire must wear mask or cloth face coverings over their noses and mouths when in public spaces, indoors or outdoors, when unable to maintain a physical distance of at least six feet from persons outside their own households.

According to the emergency order, “public spaces” include any part of private or public property that is generally open or accessible to members of the general public. Public spaces include, but are not limited to, lobbies, waiting areas, outside plazas or patios, restaurants, retail businesses, streets, sidewalks, parks, beaches, elevators, restrooms, stairways, parking garages, etc.

The mandate does not apply to the following:

- Educators, students, and staff within K-12 schools;
- Any person with a medical condition or disability that prevents wearing a mask or other face covering;
- Any person consuming food or drink or sitting at a restaurant or table to eat or drink;
- Any person engaged in physical strenuous physical activity;
- Any person giving a religious, political, media, educational, cultural, musical, or theatrical presentation or performance for an audience;
- Any person who is deaf or hard of hearing, and any person while communicating with an individual who is deaf or hard of hearing or who has a disability, medical condition, or mental health condition that makes communication with that individual while wearing a mask or face covering difficult;
- Any person obtaining or providing a service that requires the temporary removal of a mask or face covering;
- Any person asked to remove a mask or face covering to verify an identity for lawful purposes; or
- Any public safety worker actively engaged in a public safety role and when a mask or face covering would seriously interfere in the performance of their public safety responsibilities.

The mandate also does not apply to individuals who decline to wear a mask or cloth face covering because of a medical or developmental issue or difficulty breathing.

The entire order can be viewed here.

What you should know about COVID-19

COVID-19 can present with a wide range of symptoms including fever, chills, cough, shortness of breath, runny nose, nasal congestion, sore throat, fatigue, headache, muscle aches, nausea, vomiting, diarrhea, or loss of taste or smell. Any person who develops new symptoms should stay home, limit their contact with others, immediately contact their healthcare provider and get tested for COVID-19. Guidance for self-quarantine is available at: www.dhhs.nh.gov/dphs/cdcs/covid19/documents/self-quarantine-covid.pdf.

Whether or not you are experiencing symptoms, multiple testing options throughout the State are available to potentially exposed individuals. For persons without health insurance or a primary care provider, testing is available and can be scheduled by calling (603) 271-5980 or through completing the online form at business.nh.gov/DOS_COVID19Testing. Other options can be found here: www.nh.gov/covid19/resources-guidance/testing-guidance.htm.

COVID-19 continues to circulate in our communities, so all people need to protect themselves and help prevent further community spread, by:

- Stay at least 6 feet away from others, whenever possible. This is very important in preventing the spread of COVID-19.
- Cover your mouth and nose with a mask when around others. This helps reduce the risk of spread both by close contact and by airborne transmission.
- Wash your hands often with soap and water. If soap and water are not available, use a hand sanitizer that contains at least 60% alcohol.
- Avoid crowded indoor spaces and ensure indoor spaces are properly ventilated by bringing in outdoor air as much as possible. In general, being outdoors and in spaces with good ventilation reduces the risk of exposure to infectious respiratory droplets.
- Stay home and isolate from others when sick.
- Routinely clean and disinfect frequently touched surfaces.

The following events are recorded in "Notable Events in the History of Dover, New Hampshire: From the First Settlement in 1623 to 1865," by George Wadleigh, and several other historical sources.

For more on the history of Dover, settled in 1623 and the oldest permanent settlement in New Hampshire and seventh oldest in the country, visit the Dover Public Library, Locust Street; and the Woodman Museum, Central Avenue. The Public Library also maintains an online collection of historical information, located here.

Dec. 21, 1658 — It was voted that the meeting house on Dover Neck be underpinned, and catted and sealed with boards, a pulpit and seats convenient be made, and a bell purchased, to be paid for by a rate upon each man's estate according to the law of the country.

Dec. 21, 1676 — "Mr. John Rayner, Jr., minister of Dover, died of a cold and fever that he took in the field among the soldiers." (diary entry) The soldiers of the expedition arrived in Dover Sept. 6, under the command of Major Waldron. Mr. Rayner doubtless acted as chaplain while they were in service here, and in their march eastward.

Dec. 18, 1785 — Andrew Peirce is born. Peirce, who would serve as Dover's first mayor, was born in Portsmouth Dec. 18, 1785, but nearly all his life was a resident of Dover, having filled, during his active and eminently useful life, almost every office in the gift of his fellow citizens. He was Speaker of the Legislature in 1823; Senator of the 5th District in 1825 and 1826; Counselor in 1827 and 1828; and in 1850 was a member of the Convention which was called to revise the Constitution of the State. When Dover was incorporated as a city, Col. Peirce, as an honor especially due him, was elected its first Mayor. For eighteen years he served as Clerk of the Strafford Courts, and for a term of years was Cashier and President of the Dover Bank. Of the First Congregational Church he was a Deacon for 24 years. In politics Col. Peirce was originally a Republican, and with that ardent love for his country which characterized his life and was breathed in his latest prayers, he, as Captain, led his company into the field on the occasion of Portsmouth being threatened in the War of 1812. (Dover Enquirer)

Dec. 17, 1788 — John Burnham Hanson, a citizen of prominence, holding the offices of town clerk, county treasurer, etc. was found dead in the river, supposed to have drowned himself in a fit of temporary insanity.

Dec. 16, 1835 — The coldest day on record for many years. The thermometer at noon was 13 degrees below zero.
