Dover serves up delicious destinations during Main Street's annual Restaurant Week

Experience some of Dover's finest food and delectable dining during Dover Main Street's annual Restaurant Week, July 13 through July 20, 2019.

During Dover Restaurant Week, participating restaurants serve up special breakfast, lunch and dinner menus at affordable, fixed prices, all featuring some of the city's tastiest cuisine.

Saturday, July 13 to Saturday, July 20
Dover
RESTAURANT WEEK PRESENTED BY

Choose from a variety of specially priced meals, including three-course, prix-fixe dinner menus at either $16.95, $24.95 or $29.95; two-course, prix-fixe lunch menus at $16.95; and varied breakfast menus at some locations.

No matter the palette, Dover Restaurant Week is the right recipe for everyone, from classic cuisine to epicurean delights from all corners of the globe.

This year's participating restaurants include Thompson's 2nd Alarm, Blue Latitudes, Cara's Irish Pub, Christopher's Third Street Grille, Cinco de Mayo Bar and Grill, Ember Wood Fired Grill, Harvey's Bakery, La Festa Brick and Brew, Oriental Delight, Roost, and Wing Itz.

"Dover Restaurant Week is a great opportunity to experience some of Dover's tastiest cuisine, all prepared at locally owned restaurants," said Erin Tellez, Chair of the Dover Main Street Board. "As Dover continues to grow and thrive, so does the quality and variety of our dining experience. Whether you're visiting for the first time or supporting some of your favorite Dover destinations, Dover Restaurant Week will leave you satisfied."

Reservations are suggested during Dover Restaurant Week. Be sure to mention Dover Dines when making reservations or eating at any of the participating restaurants.

For links to participating restaurants and their Dover Restaurant Week menus, or for more information, visit <https://dovermainstreet.org/event.php?id=26> and facebook.com/doverdines.

Friends of Dover Library hold special "Cookbooks Only" sale

In conjunction with "Dover Dines Restaurant Week", the Friends of the Dover Public Library will hold a special "Cookbooks Only" booksale for one week at the library's main desk from Monday, July 15 through Saturday, July 20. Prices will range from $1 to $3 and the stock will include a very large selection of softcovers and hardcovers, local community cookbooks, exotic foreign cuisines, and everything in between.

The sale will take place during regular library hours: Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m. to 8:30 p.m.; Friday, 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.; and Saturday, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Proceeds from the sale will help the Friends of the Library continue to fund special library programs, museum passes, equipment, and furnishings.

For more information, contact the Dover Public Library at (603) 516-6050.

Dover joins National Night Out Aug. 6

Chief William M. Breault of the Dover Police Department is pleased to announce that the Dover Police Department will participate in National Night Out on Tuesday, Aug. 6, 2019 in Henry Law Park. The event will take place from 4:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. and is free to the public. National Night Out is a time for community members to meet with police officers, discuss issues, learn what the police do, and unite with the common goal of crime prevention and safety.

The public will be able to see some of the specialized equipment and vehicles that the police use on a daily basis. These will include a police cruiser, the police motorcycle, the crime scene and mobile command vehicles along with our tactical rescue vehicle. Several officers including the mounted patrol and our K9 officer will be at the event and interacting with the public. National Night Out will also feature firefighters and fire apparatus from the Dover Fire and Rescue Department.

"The Dover Police Department recognizes the importance of getting to know the members of our community and the value of positive police-community partnerships," said Chief Breault. "National Night Out is an excellent opportunity for police officers, firefighters and community members to meet and interact. This goes a long way toward solving community problems together."

There will also be community organizations on hand to provide literature and other information related to health, safety, and wellness. Information on drug prevention, treatment and recovery resources, and violence prevention will be available to the public through various booths at the event. There will also be food and drinks available.

National Night Out is an annual community building campaign that promotes police- community partnerships to make our neighborhoods safer, better places to live. Dover's National Night Out is an opportunity for citizens to meet and engage with their first responders.

Dover's National Night Out is a family oriented event and is affiliated with National Night Out, which involves over 35 million people in more than 10,000 communities across the nation.

The Dover Police Department's Facebook page at www.facebook.com/DoverNHPolice will soon feature more information on the event. Individuals looking to get involved can contact Officer Brynn Dunne at (603) 742-4646.

Ducky Derby a success for SEED

Seacoast Education Endowment for Dover ("SEED"), a nonprofit organization that promotes academic excellence by providing innovation grants to Dover educators, raised more than $1,500 during its second annual Dover Ducky Derby. The event was a collaboration between SEED and the Children's Museum of New Hampshire ("CMNH"); all proceeds raised will be used to support innovative curriculum and projects in Dover public schools.

A flock of 1,000 adopted ducks were released to Dover's Cocheco River from the Washington Street Bridge. The sponsors of the first five ducks to cross the finish line were deemed the winners. Prizes donated by several local businesses included a Children's Museum of New Hampshire family fun pack, donated by CMNH; a Razor Trike, donated by Burns, Bryant, Cox, Rockefeller and Durkin P.A.; "Too Cool for the Pool" themed gift bag, donated by AIRVAC, Inc.; a Storyland package donated by Granite Fitness and Performance; and free kids' meals for a year, donated by Cinco De Mayo Bar & Grill. Winners were: Charlene Stearns, the Alexander Family, Courtney Angers, David Watters, and Deb Fennessy.

The derby was held in conjunction with the Museum's NH Maker & Food Fest and Recycled River Regatta. "SEED's role in the community is so important for developing 21st century scholars," said President of the Children's Museum of New Hampshire, Jane Bard. "We look forward to continuing this event to promote more awareness of SEED and its mission."

Twice annually SEED provides grant funds to Dover public educators for proposed projects to facilitate academic excellence. The non-profit raises funds necessary to augment the city's school budget through donations from philanthropic individuals, corporate giving, and fundraisers. To donate, go to www.doverseed.org.

Coming up in Dover schools

Monday, Aug. 12, 7 p.m., McConnell Center, Room 306
School Board Meeting

Monday, Aug. 26, Teacher Return/Teacher Workshop
Day

Tuesday, Aug. 27, Teacher Workshop Day

Wednesday, Aug. 28, First Day of School

Friday, Aug. 30 - Monday, Sept. 2, Labor Day Recess

The following events are recorded in "Notable Events in the History of Dover, New Hampshire: From the First Settlement in 1623 to 1865," by George Wadleigh, and several other historical sources.

For more on the history of Dover, settled in 1623 and the oldest permanent settlement in New Hampshire and seventh oldest in the country, visit the Dover Public Library, Locust Street; and the Woodman Museum, Central Avenue. The Public Library also maintains an online collection of historical information, located here.

July 13, 1776 - It was voted that forty two shillings be given by the town to each of the soldiers enlisted and that shall enlist since the 11th inst. and proceed in the present expedition to Canada not exceeding fifteen or sixteen men, and that the Selectmen hire the money (and pay the same) in the best manner they can immediately on the town's account.

July 12, 1792 - The first newspaper published in Dover, entitled "The Political and Sentimental Repository or Strafford Register," appeared this day.

July 16, 1781 - On the petition of Capt. Thomas Young and Capt. James Calef, stating that they had been "ordered by Col. Stephen Evans without loss of time to enlist or draft fourteen able bodied effective men to serve three months if not sooner discharged, wherever the Commander in Chief shall order as soldiers," it was voted "Capt. Young and Capt. Calef be a committee to raise the fourteen men required, and that they give thirty shillings silver money to each man that enlists, which they shall have whether called on to go into service or not, and when they march each man shall receive thirty shillings more like money."

July 17, 1817 - President Monroe, who took his seat on the 4th of March of this year, made a visit to New England, going from Boston to Portsmouth and Portland, and returning by way of Dover, which he reached this day. He was received at the line of the State by the committee appointed by the town authorities, conducted by the Marshals and select escort.

July 14, 1835 - Plato Waldron, aged about 56, drowned in the Cochecho, near the Landing. Plato was born a slave of Thomas Westbrook Waldron and was probably about the last member of the "peculiar institution" who lived and died in Dover. For many years previous to his death he was janitor of the Courts when in session in the old Court House.

Walking tours of historic Dover

The Greater Dover Chamber of Commerce is again hosting walking tours of historic Dover through Labor Day weekend.

The Saturday morning walking tours begin at 10:30 a.m. Three different, 90-minute walking tours will be offered throughout the summer, and take place from one of three Dover locations as specified on the tour schedule.

The next tour is July 13 and departs from the Pine Hill Cemetery chapel. On this tour you'll learn about the history of Dover's burial grounds, and anecdotal stories as you visit the graves of people who were part of Dover's history.

Reservations are recommended, and can be made by calling 603-742-2218 or email info@dovernh.org. Walking Tours cost $10 per person with $25 limit for families.

More information can be found at www.dovernh.org/tours.

Local teacher heading to the Arctic to study Climate Change

Piper Bartlett-Browne will be speaking at the Dover Public Library on Tuesday, July 23 at 6:30 p.m. She is a high school science teacher at St. Thomas Aquinas High School in Dover. She has recently been accepted into the PolarTREC Program ([www.polar trec.com](http://www.polar trec.com)), an NSF-funded opportunity that takes 12 teachers from the United States per year. Teachers are partnered with polar scientists and go on 3-6 week expeditions in the Arctic or Antarctic. Teachers use these experiences to communicate polar research in their classrooms and communities. Piper will be going to the Arctic Aug. 9 through Sept. 5th to do long-term climate change research on a US Coast Guard vessel. See the link below for details on her specific expedition: [www.polar trec.com/expeditions/northern-chukchi-integrated-study](http://www.polar trec.com/expeditions/northern-chukchi-integrated-study)

The program is free and open to the public.

For more information call the Library at 603-516-6050.

Music and baseball with Howie

Newman at Dover Library July 16

The Friends of the Library are pleased to present singer-guitarist Howie Newman at 7 p.m. Tuesday, July 16 at Dover Public Library. Newman is a full-time musician and full-time baseball fan who has been to 91 major and minor league parks. He was a sportswriter for 18 years, working for the Boston Globe, Associated Press, Patriot Ledger, Lowell Sun and other suburban Massachusetts newspapers.

He has combined his love of baseball with music, having recorded two CDs of baseball music, "Baseball's Greatest Hits, Volumes 1 & 2". Both albums have been accepted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York. His musical compositions include songs about Johnny Damon, Mario Mendoza, Doug Mientkiewicz, Tug McGraw, and Bob Heise.

During the show, Howie will sing baseball songs, offer up baseball trivia, and talk about his days on the Bosox beat. "Baseball is the one sport that really lends itself to music," said Newman, whose experience also includes three years of radio color commentary for the Lowell Spinners, a Red Sox farm team. "If people have questions about the Red Sox and what it's like to cover the team, I'll be happy to answer them. It's going to be a very unique show and I'm sure folks will enjoy it. I'll also be playing some old songs from the 1920s through 1970, so there will be something for everyone."

This Friends of the Library free program is open to the public and will be held in the Library's newly air-conditioned Lecture Hall. Attendees are encouraged to wear their Red Sox gear.

For more information, call the Dover Public Library at 603-516-6050 or visit howienewman.com.

Online survey to gauge Dover's age-friendly needs

The City of Dover was recently accepted into the AARP's Network of Age-Friendly Communities. Working in conjunction with the World Health Organization, this network targets improvements in eight domains that influence the health and quality of life in the city for every age. The first step in this important initiative is to conduct an assessment of needs.

Dover residents are asked to answer this brief and anonymous online survey to help guide city officials and enhance the city as an age-friendly community.

To access the survey, visit this link.

DID YOU KNOW

Preserve your memories at the Dover Public Library

Do you have shoeboxes full of photographs? Or carousels full of slides? Do you have a shelf of VHS tapes of your kids' school plays, or of Christmases past? Do you even have a VHS player, or a slide projector anymore? It is time to copy these precious memories to a format that will withstand the test of time, and the Dover Public Library can help you.

The Dover Public Library's Memory Lab has the equipment you need to convert your photographs, negatives, slides, VHS tapes, and cassette tapes to digital files. You can save these files on your computer, on a thumb drive, or in the cloud.

The library offers three different Memory Lab Equipment Stations: the scanner (for photographs, negatives, and slides), the VHS/DVD converter (for VHS tapes), and the cassette converter (for cassette tapes). You can make an appointment on the website to use one of these stations for free. Appointments are for two-and-a-half or three hours. During your appointment, you can convert your memories to digital files.

For more information, call Peggy Thrasher at the Dover Public Library 516-6050.
