Dedication ceremony slated for new Parking Garage murals

The Dover Arts Commission and Seymour Osman Community Center will hold a dedication ceremony for new parking garage murals depicting the history of Dover on Friday, Aug. 4, 2017 at 5:30 p.m., at the Orchard Street Parking Garage.

The Dover Arts Commission submitted a grant application to the New Hampshire State Council on the Arts in 2016 for the creation and installation of mosaic murals at the parking garage, the City's first public art installation.

The five mosaic murals, installed on each level of the garage, were created earlier this year by children ages seven to 12 in an afterschool program at the Seymour Osman Community Center. Assembled under the guidance of Robert Rossel of Epping, a New Hampshire State Council on the Arts' artist, each mural depicts an iconic Dover landmark. The icons were designed by Pip Clews of Portsmouth. The mural frames were constructed with donated wood by building trades students at Dover High School.

The murals span Dover's history, including a gundalow, the mills, Garrison Hill Tower, City Hall and the Dover Police Mounted Patrol.

This project was made possible with support from the New Hampshire State Council on the Arts and the National Endowment for the Arts, and generous sponsors who provided additional funding, including the City of Dover, Dover Police Charities, Chinburg Properties, Cocheco Printworks, Glass Routes, Kennebunk Savings Bank, Little Tree Education and Shaheen & Gordon, PA.

The dedication ceremony on Aug. 4 is open to all. Please RSVP to Parking Manager Bill Simons at 516-2277 or W.Simons@dover.nh.gov.

Aug. 2, 1644 - It was ordered by the Court that Elisabeth, wife of Mathew Giles, be whipped or redeemed with a fine of 20 shillings for reviling words against some of the members of the church.

July 28, 1665 - The treasurer was ordered to pay for the killing of a wolf in the year 1663, "as appeareth in a note under the Constable's hands, in the hands of John Hall, Deacon, under the selectmen's hands," the money to go to the said John Hall, Deacon, and fifteen other persons, each to receive an equal portion. As the price for killing a wolf was but 5 pounds. The share of each could not have been large, though it was very proper, as the town had given its note for the amount, that the same should be paid.

July 31, 1766 - Rev. Jeremy Belknap was invited to preach in Dover as an assistant of Rev. Mr. Gushing, and after he had preached "as a probationer" for a month it was unanimously voted by the parish to pay him one hundred pounds lawful money, yearly or every year, as a salary. Dr. Belknap afterwards purchased a house on Silver street where he lived during his ministry in Dover, which stood on the site of the Belknap school house, and was taken down when the school house was built in 1854. The Belknap lot originally comprised the adjoining lot on which the house built about 1776 by Dr. Ezra Green, where Dr. Green lived until his death in 1847, and which did not pass out of the hands of his descendants until 1876.

Aug. 3, 1829 - James G. Avery, a young man in the employ of the Manufacturing Company, fell from the Dry House, a distance of about 40 feet, surviving the accident but a few hours.
