

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS: On December 19th, 2024, Lilly Nossiff achieved a remarkable milestone by scoring her 1,000th career point while playing for Dover High School in a game against Nashua High School; and
- WHEREAS: The game was paused to recognize her extraordinary accomplishment, and her name will be forever enshrined on the plaque honoring players who have reached this prestigious benchmark, displayed in the Ollie Adams gym at Dover High School; and
- WHEREAS: Standing at 6 feet 2 inches, Lilly has dominated the court with both height and skill, earning her place on the varsity team as a freshman; and
- WHEREAS: She has proudly worn the number 54 jersey, the same jersey number worn by the daughter of her coach, Ernie Clark, who also surpassed the 1,000-point milestone at Dover High School; and
- WHEREAS: Lilly met and exceeded expectations, achieving this distinguished feat through dedication, hard work, and perseverance; and
- WHEREAS: She has been supported by the guidance and mentorship of Coaches Clark, Casey, and Flynn, and has formed lifelong friendships with teammates, many of whom have been by her side since her time on the Dover Middle School varsity basketball team; and
- WHEREAS: Beyond her success on the basketball court, Lilly has also excelled academically, demonstrating the same commitment and excellence in her studies; and
- WHEREAS: In the fall of 2025, Lilly will continue her academic and athletic journey at St. Anselm College, where she will play Division II basketball and pursue a degree in education;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Robert Carrier, Mayor of the City of Dover in the State of New Hampshire, and the entire City Council hereby recognize and celebrate Lilly Nossiff for her outstanding achievement of scoring 1,000 career points, her dedication to her team, school, and community, and her bright future ahead. May her accomplishments serve as an inspiration to current and future generations of student-athletes.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have here unto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Dover to be affixed this 26th Day of March, 2025.

Robert Carrier, Mayor
City of Dover, New Hampshire
