Chief of Police

April 7, 2017

Chief Anthony Colarusso of the Dover Police Department announces an arrest in a credit union robbery that occurred today, April 7, 2017.

At approximately 2:37 PM a white male wearing sunglasses, a scally style hat, gray shirt and black jacket entered the Northeast Credit Union branch at 9 Member's Way, Dover, New Hampshire. The man passed a note to the teller indicating that he had a weapon and demanding cash. No actual weapon was shown. No one was injured during the Robbery and the suspect fled with an undisclosed amount of money.

As Dover Police Department detectives and Crime Scene Unit officers investigated the robbery, surveillance images of the suspect were released to the media. As a result of this media coverage, numerous people contacted the Dover Police Department with information.

With the assistance of the public, and through further investigation, DPD detectives were able to identify Austin Mclean, 18, of 5 Spring Street, Dover, NH, as being responsible for the robbery. Mclean was arrested without incident at Dover Police Department headquarters at approximately 8:25 PM, and charged with one count of Robbery, a Class A felony.

Mclean was held on $25,000.00 cash bail and is being held at the Strafford County House of Correction. He will be arraigned in Strafford County Superior Court at 9:00 AM on Monday, April 10, 2017.

This case is being investigated by the Dover Police Department's Special Investigations Bureau.
