Media Release March 24, 2018

Chief Anthony Colarusso of the Dover Police Department announces an arrest in a bank robbery that occurred Friday, March 23, 2018.

At approximately 4:30 PM a male wearing sunglasses, black pants, and a black sweatshirt entered the Kennebunk Savings branch at 701 Central Avenue, Dover, New Hampshire. The man passed a note to the teller demanding cash. The man also showed the teller what appeared to be a firearm. No one was injured during the robbery and the suspect fled on foot with an undisclosed amount of money.

Dover Police Department patrol officers, joined by a Dover Police canine, began searching the area around the bank. As Dover Police Department detectives and Crime Scene Unit officers investigated the robbery, surveillance images of the suspect were released to the media.

Through further investigation, DPD officers were able to identify Jose Reveras-Morales, 30, of 720 Central Avenue, Dover, NH, as being a suspect in the robbery. DPD detectives obtained a search warrant for Reveras-Morales' residence. DPD officers contacted Reveras-Morales by telephone and directed him out of the residence at approximately 7:56 PM. Reveras-Morales was detained as the search warrant was executed, and subsequently arrested at Dover Police Headquarters shortly thereafter. Reveras-Morales was charged with one count of Robbery, a Class A felony.

720 Central Avenue is an apartment building within site of the bank that was robbed. The Dover Police Department was assisted at 720 Central Avenue by the New Hampshire State Police.

Reveras-Morales was held on $100,000.00 cash bail and is being held at the Strafford County House of Correction. He will be arraigned in Strafford County Superior Court at 9:00 AM on Monday, March 26, 2018.

The Dover Police Department wishes to thank the New Hampshire State Police for their timely assistance in this case.

This case is being investigated by the Dover Police Department's Special Investigations Bureau. Anyone with information about these incidents is asked to call the Dover Police
