FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE DOVER POLICE DEPARTMENT HOLDS ANNUAL AWARDS BANQUET

DOVER, NH, On February 25, 2020, the Dover Police Department held its annual awards banquet at Ember Wood Fired Grill. During the night, the department honored the following employees for various awards:

- Employee of the Year: Officer Christopher Plummer received the award in recognition of his attributes in many areas, to include his work as the Whittier Falls liaison officer where he worked tirelessly to better the quality of life for DHA residents. Chris transitioned back to the patrol bureau where he proved to be an asset working to train new officers and improve the quality of department wide trainings in the area of use of force. Chris has spent a lot of his free time and efforts to help create more realistic and advantageous trainings for fellow officers. Officer Plummer's 15 years of experience as an officer, his time in the Drug Task Force, his experience as a Team Leader with the Strafford County Regional Tactical Operations Unit, and his positive attitude and enthusiasm for police work make him an asset to the Dover Police Department and worthy of the recognition as the Dover Police Department's 2019 Employee of the year. (See Photo 1 of Officer Chris Plummer and Chief Breault)
- Mission Award: Officer Allison Couch. The Mission award recognizes the employee who meets the department's mission while consistently maintaining the appropriate balance between enforcing laws and providing customer service while continuing the department's community policing efforts. Officer Couch lead the department in criminal arrests, while also maintaining an above average number of citizen community policing contacts. Officer Couch was able to do this while also fulfilling her responsibilities as a field training officer. Officer Couch is not only a valuable member of the department, she is an outstanding role model for new officers. (See photo 2 of Officer Alison Couch and Chief Breault)
