FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DOVER, NH, November 23, 2020 - Chief William Breault of the Dover Police Department announces the arrest of Christopher L. Nash, age 28, 41 Belknap Street, Apartment #2, Dover, NH, on the charges of Conduct after Accident and Driving after Revocation or Suspension.

On November 9, 2020 at approximately 12:23 PM, Dover Police responded to the intersection of Washington Street and Arch Street for an auto accident involving a pedestrian. Officers met with a 63 year old Dover resident who reported he had been struck by a beige Toyota Camry operated by a white male which fled the scene. The pedestrian was transported to an area emergency room where he was treated and released for non-life threatening injuries.

Responding officers located a beige Toyota Camry fitting this description in a driveway on Arch Street. Police had recent contact with the vehicle which lead them to an address at 41 Belknap Street. Officers subsequently contacted Christopher Nash at 41 Belknap Street who confessed to being the driver involved in the collision.

Police later obtained an arrest warrant charging Nash with Conduct after Accident, a felony, and misdemeanor level Operating after Revocation or Suspension. Nash turned himself in on November 16, 2020 at which time he was held in preventive detention pending arraignment at the Strafford County Superior Court the following day. At the time of his arrest, Nash was also currently on bail stemming from a Felonious Sexual Assault charge on February 19, 2020. That matter is also pending before the Strafford County Superior Court.

Anyone with additional information regarding this incident is asked to contact the Dover Police Department. Media inquiries concerning this case can be directed to the on duty shift commander at 603-742-4646.
