DOVER POLICE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCES CHILD PORNOGRAPHY ARREST

DOVER, NH, October 2, 2025 - Chief David Terlemezian of the Dover Police Department announces that an arrest has been made following a child pornography investigation.

On the evening of October 1, 2025, Dover Police detectives arrested Devin Finnegan, 27, of Dover, New Hampshire, after obtaining an arrest warrant charging him with six counts of Possession of Child Sexual Abuse Images, all felony offenses.

The arrest stems from an investigation that began after Dover Police received a tip from the New Hampshire Internet Crimes Against Children (ICAC) Task Force. Investigators identified Finnegan as a suspect and obtained a warrant for his arrest and a search warrant for his property. Finnegan was taken into custody without incident and the search yielded electronic evidence that will require further analysis and investigation.

In accordance with state law, Finnegan was not eligible for bail and is being held at the Strafford County House of Corrections. He is scheduled to be arraigned on Thursday, October 2, 2025, at 10:00 A.M. in the 7th Circuit Court – District Division – Dover.

The ICAC Task Force is a statewide initiative dedicated to investigating offenders who exploit children online; the Dover Police Department is a participating affiliate of this task force.

Anyone with information about this incident is asked to call the Dover Police Department at 603-742-4646. Those wishing to remain anonymous can provide information to the Dover Crimeline at 603-749-6000. The Dover Crimeline can also be contacted via www.dovernhcrimeline.org.
