NORWEGIAN CRUISE LINE
 FREESTYLE CRUISING®

St. Thomas, US Virgin Islands - The waterfront warehouses where gold-hungry pirates once stored their booty now house treasures of another kind: duty-free china, watches, jewelry and other luxury goods. Colorful coral reefs in turquoise waters lure snorkelers and scuba divers from all over the world. Our package includes an Exclusive Island Tour with shopping, and time at Meghan's Bay!

Philipsburg, St. Maarten - There's no formal border between Dutch St. Maarten and French St. Martin. No split personality, either. Just hypothetical line in the sand and beautiful Mullet Bay. On the Dutch side is a casino and shops and on the French, cafes and high-fashion boutiques.

St. John's, Antigua - With a beach for each day of the year, a coastline peppered with safe harbors and a nearly unbroken protective wall of coral reef, Antigua was fought over by many nations. It has been staunchly British since Lord Horatio Nelson established a naval headquarters here in the 1700s.

Bridgetown, Barbados - On this island of tropical palm-fringed beaches there's an ambiance that ranges from sophisticated (in Bridgetown) to slow-paced. Enjoy an exciting tour of Harrison's cave, filled with underground streams, thundering waterfalls, stalactites and stalagmites.

Castries, St. Lucia - Owing to its somewhat checkered past, St. Lucia boasts both French and British influences. Its famous twin peaks are among the most startling geological formations in the world, while the island's easily accessible and expansive coral reefs make it a preferred destination for snorkelers. Explore the world's only drive-in volcanic crater at Sulfur Springs. Visit the Diamond Botanical Gardens and Falls and the Morne Coubaril Estate.

Basseterre, St. Kitts - Although founded by the French in 1627, St. Kitts is a very British paradise where cricket and tea are the norm. The dramatic mixed island landscape is rimmed in gold-sand beaches and dotted with well-preserved plantations left over from when the island was covered with sugar cane.

Tortola, British Virgin Islands - Lazy, laid-back Road Town serves up English pubs and pretty painted wooden buildings. But great bays and beaches are the big draw here. So is Sage National Park, where primeval stands of mahogany trees still rule the dense scrub.
