Local filmmakers screen new work at Dover Public Library Aug. 11

Local filmmakers, the Dover Independent Players, will screen their new short film "Through a Glass, Darkly" at the Dover Public Library on Tuesday, Aug. 11 at 7 p.m., followed by a Q&A session with cast and crew members.

Produced locally and filmed in July, mainly at Hampton Beach, the film is about Julia, a 15-year-old, who while on vacation at the beach with her older sister, sells her soul to the devil for the magic of the boardwalk. The film is appropriate for teens and adults. Updates and behind the scenes videos and photos can be found at Facebook.com/TAGDfilm or on Instagram with the hashtag #TAGDfilm.

The Dover Independent Players are a group of former Dover High School students who produce art, music, films, and theater productions. Dover Independent Players' previous production, a one-act play called "Adopt a Sailor", written by Charles Evered, premiered at the Dover High School in Spring 2013. It starred four students who are major cast or crew members on "Through a Glass, Darkly". The film runs about 15 minutes. Keep in mind when considering bringing younger members of the family the "rating" would be PG-13.

The program is free and open to the public.

For more information, call the Dover Public Library at 603-516-6050.

Library hours are Monday through Wednesday, 9 a.m. to 8:30 p.m.; Thursday and Friday, 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.; and Saturdays 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Learn more about the high School and CTC building project online

The Dover School Board recently Board passed a resolution to support the construction of a new high school and Career Technical Center. The City Council will hold a public hearing on the project Aug. 12, before voting on funding the project later that month.

More information about the high school and CTC building project, including the most recent cost estimates, can be found at the project's online resource here.

Silver Street open to one-way traffic during construction

Silver Street (NH Route 9) will be a one-way street, inbound (easterly) only, from the intersection with Arch Street and Towle Avenue to the intersection with Central Avenue (NH Route 108). This pattern will be in effect at all times of the day, every day, through at least the end of September.

The suggested detour route for passenger cars from downtown will be via Washington Street to Arch Street. The intersection of Washington/Arch Streets will be converted to a three-way stop during this project in order to help safely process the extra traffic. The secondary detour (truck route) will be via Central Avenue to the Spaulding Turnpike.

For more information, visit the Silver Street Reconstruction Project page here or contact Community Services at 516-6450.

Exit 5 northbound ramps closed for Spaulding Turnpike construction

The New Hampshire Department of Transportation has closed the Exit 5 northbound ramps on the Spaulding Turnpike in Dover for several months. Portable concrete barriers will be used at Exit 5 to close off the existing on and off ramps. The Exit 5 ramps will reopen later this summer.

A northbound traffic shift will allow for the construction of the new northbound tie-in from the Little Bay Bridge to the existing northbound lanes north of Exit 5. The Exit 5 ramps will be reconstructed to match the new alignment.

Motorists needing to access Wentworth Terrace and Hilton Park will be directed northbound to Exit 6W, and to a detour back to Boston Harbor Road and under the new Little Bay Bridge to get from the west side to the east side of the Turnpike. Southbound traffic needing to access Wentworth Terrace and Hilton Park, will be able to use Exit 6S and proceed to the signals at US Route 4/Boston Harbor Road.

Detour signs will be erected to show the new traffic pattern. Fire, emergency vehicles and school buses will need to use the detour. Boaters wishing to launch at Hilton Park should also take notice of this planned ramp closure and detour.

For more information, contact NHDOT at 603-271-3734.

The following events are recorded in "Notable Events in the History of Dover, New Hampshire: From the First Settlement in 1623 to 1865," by George Wadleigh, "Historic Rambles About Dover," by Robert A. Whitehouse, "Port of Dover: Two Centuries of Shipping on the Cochecho" by Robert A. Whitehouse and Cathleen C. Beaudoin, and several other historical sources.

For more on the history of Dover, settled in 1623 and the oldest permanent settlement in New Hampshire and seventh oldest in the country, visit the Dover Public Library, Locust Street; and the Woodman Institute Museum, Central Avenue. The Public Library also maintains an online collection of historical information, located at

Aug. 7, 1661 - Dover and Portsmouth were presented for want of a sufficient bridge for horse and foot over Cochecho river. The Court ordered a committee to be chosen from the two towns to view the same and if they found it needful to make a bridge.

Aug. 10, 1706 - Nicholas Peaslee was slain by the Indians in the day time, at his cave, some miles above Oyster river, where he had dwelt night and day, summer and winter, from the last breaking out of the war, precisely three years, though he was in the very wake and way where the enemy used to pass. He was a man of strange confidence, and would not be persuaded to leave his place.

Aug. 7, 1826 - A very heavy thunder shower, during which the house of Moses Hodgdon, Esq. on Silver street, was struck by lightning. A beautiful sycamore tree in front of the house received the electric fluid, an immense body of which ran down the trunk, ripping off the bark, a portion of the lightning entering the house by a limb of the tree. The house of Mr. John Evans, about 50 rods distant, was struck at the same instant: a man was struck to the floor, but recovered in a few minutes. About the same time, a barn belonging to Mr. Benjamin Kielle, about 2 1/2 miles from the village, was struck and considerably injured.

Aug. 8, 1828 - "Dover Society for the promotion of Temperance" formed - the members pledging themselves to abstain entirely from the use of ardent spirits, except for medicinal purposes - the first Society of the kind in the town.

Aug. 14, 1863 - A draft of 152 men was made from Dover for filling up the depleted ranks of the N.H. Regiments and the City Council passed an ordinance for the payment of $300 to every drafted man or his substitute, ten da^^s after being mustered into the service of the United States. The Dover conscripts, when the draft became known, met in front of the City Hall from whence with music and torches they marched through the principal streets. Great enthusiasm and much good feeling prevailed.

Aug. 11, 1920 - Census returns announced on this day show Dover's population as 13,029, a decrease of 219 from 1910. However, this is seen as actual growth because Dover lost about 1,000 inhabitants when the Cocheco Print Works moved to Lawrence, Mass., a few years prior.

Night at the Woodman Museum returns in October with 'Voices from the Cemetery'

Popular event now seeking actors, volunteers

Back from its successful two-year run, Dover's Woodman Museum will present "Night at the Woodman Museum III: Voices from the Cemetery," during Columbus Day weekend, Oct. 10, 11, and 12.

The production needs 75 cast members to act, lead tours and provide production assistance in making Voices from the Cemetery come to life. All roles are for adults and no acting background is necessary, just an interest in bringing history to life and helping out Dover's oldest museum.

A Night at the Woodman Museum cast information night will be held on Monday, Aug. 13, 2015, 6:30 p.m. at the Keefe House, located on the Woodman Museum grounds, 15 Summer St. in Dover.

Presented in Dover's picturesque and historic Pine Hill Cemetery, the production will include over 20 scenes of Dover history that will come to life during the 90-minute tours through the grounds of one of Dover's oldest cemeteries. Over the course of the weekend the cast and guides of Voices from the Cemetery will offer escorted tours of the paths and by-ways of the burial ground that dates from 1731.

If interested in joining the cast or helping out with the family-fun event, visit the Woodman Museum website, WoodmanMuseum.org for more information, or contact Mark Leno at mleno@doverhousingauthority.org.
